I'm very concerned that our country is headed in the wrong direction. There is very little to be proud of during this political season, it appears that attacks are the order of the day...whether warranted or not. And it appears that the Republican party has gone out of its way to be vindictive and just plain vile. I think that we are better than that. I want to be proud to be an American again....it must begin somewhere and I think that if Sinclair is allowed to air this mockumentary, we should allow other stations to air Farenheit 9/11 or do the airwaves belong to parties of a certain political persuasion?

I thank you for your time.
